PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

We hope you are enjoying the summer weather. We find it hard to believe that June is gone already? Thinking of time gone by; don't let these wonderful opportunities get by you:

1. Sign up for the Fall Retreat-last time I checked there were five spots open.
2. Sign up for a quilt guild workshop. September: String Star, October: Wool Pumpkin wall hanging, November: Quilting Designs and February: purse workshop.
3. Enter your quilts for the 2014 "Harvest of Quilts" quilt show. The last three dates to turn in your paper work is July 12, 23 and August 9.
4. Whip up a raffle basket or silent auction donation for the quilt show.
5. Sign up to work the quilt show!
6. Come out for social quilting and help make a quilt for the SOS Village. Dates are listed in the newsletter.
7. Check and see if you have paid for your raffle tickets, as well as, your membership renewal.

This is an exciting time for our guild. We are very proud of everyone who is working behind the scenes making our guild the best it can be!

Peacefully yours, Debbie and Ronda Heritage Quilters Guild Co-Presidents

SILENT AUCTION – SUE BARNHILL AND GAIL HANKS

Sue Barnhill and Gail Hanks are collecting items for the Quilt Shows "Silent Auction"

Our show is but 4 months away. This is not a lot of time. So please put us on your summer schedule.

We will accept anything you would like to make. Variety is a wonderful thing. Crafts, Purses, Totes, Throws, Baby items, quilted or knitted, crocheted items, Wall hangings, Table toppers. Un-Quilted tops are the only unfinished item we would want to display.

You can drop them off at Social Quilting, SOS, or to either one of our homes, please call first to make sure we are home. I (Sue) can also pick up donations if the need arises.

When you turn in your item please pin a note to it with your name and recommended minimum bid attached.

The more items we have the more money we can make to help us with guild functions.

We are so looking forward to seeing all the wonderful things that all of you will make.

TRAVELING QUILT – BONNIE LESLIE

VENDORS – TERRI KARLS

VOLUNTEERS – KAY JOHNSON AND LOBBY CHAIRS
